Prof. Syed Rifaat Hussain

Prof. Syed Riffat Hussain is a renowned professor and Head of Department of the Government and Public Policy at the School of Social Sciences and Humanities at the National University of Science and Technology, Islamabad. He has previously served as the Chair of the Department of Defence and Strategic Studies at Quaid-i-Azam University, Islamabad.; the Chair of the Department of Peace and Conflict Studies at the National University in Islamabad; the Executive Director of the Regional Centre for Strategic Studies, Colombo, Sri Lanka. He has also taught at the Political Science Department, Stanford University, California, USA and has been a course director for International Politics at the Foreign Service Academy, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Islamabad. He serves as a member of the editorial boards of several publications such as the South Asia Journal, the National Defence University Journal and the Regional Studies Quarterly.

He is also the author of numerous books and publication including Afghanistan and 9/1: The Anatomy of Conflict (2002); From Dependence to Intervention: Soviet-Afghanistan Relations during the Brezhnev Era (1964 – 1982) (1994); “Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE): An Elusive Quest for a “Homeland”, Journal of South Asian and Middle Eastern Studies (Spring 2009)

Prof. Hussain holds an M.A. and a PhD in International Studies from University of Denver, Colorado.